Chapter 1 by noho4567

Sometimes I lie awake at night and think. I think for hours and hours about things that no 14 year old boy should ever think about. Things like what happens when you die, are aliens real (not like sci-fi aliens but real intelligent extra terrestrials) and, stay with me here, why the human race is so inevitably, undeniably and incredibly fucked. I know, I know you're thinking "oh we're fine! On the brink of a new era, beginning of the space age" but really, if you think about it, we're simply digging a hole that we will never escape. We have starvation and obesity in one run, huge factories obliterating the atmosphere. And, worst of all, we have food and water shortage issues. The truth is, no matter how much we protest, fight and attempt to stop this, it is inevitable...

'JACK'

Oh shit... i probably dozed off again... well whatever, I mean it's not like I had plans after school...
